THURSDAY EVENING, SEPT. 1, 1904.

A Dastardly Attempt. Odell Bros., local agents for the People's line steamer Tourist, running between Norfolk and Petersburg, confirm a report which reached Norfolk yesterday afternoon to the effect that an attempt was made to blow up the Tourist in Norfolk harbor on Monday last. Some unknown person or persons board-ded the steamer, presumably while she lay at her wharf Sunday night, and so manipulated the boiler and machinery tubes as to put the boat in great dange of being blown up after leaving her wharf the next day. While the little steamer was between Norfolk and Newport News, on her way to Petersburg, early Monday, Engineer Bell, an expert in his line, discovered that something was wrong and acted just in time to prevent a disaster. There were a number of passengers aboard at the time, and but for the discovery of the engineer a dozen or more lives would have been lost. There is no clue of any kind as to who was guilty of the act. Odell Bros. say that there was no hard feeling to-ward the company by any member of the steamer's crew, so far as is known, and that no one has lately been discharged from the boat. On the trip before the incident of Monday the boat had a fire of unknown origin aboard.

Explosion of Powder. Eight hundred kegs of powder exploded yesterday in the pressroom of the Laffin & Rand Powder Works, two miles east of Puntsatawney, Pa., instantly killing one man, seriously injuring three others and causing costly destruction of property. The pressroom, which was about 40 feet square, was totally destroyed. Leonard Bair was in the building at the time of the explosion. When his body was recovered among the ruins after the accident it was found that part of his head had been literally blown away. No other part of his body lwas in the least mutilated. The three other men were in an engine-room 200 feet away from the pressroom. Each was severely cut and bruised by pieces of flying debris, and all were knocked unconscious by the terrific force of the explosion. Other buildings in the factory inclosure were wrecked, and every building within a mile of the powder works was damaged. The residence of Powder Bloss Speno, 2,000 teet from the plant was ruined. The cause of the explosion will probably never be known, as Bair was the only man in the building at the time. The violent shock of the explosion caused every building in Punxsutawney to trembie on its foundations.

A couple of winters ago I slipped on a frozen sidewalk and fell flat on my back. On being examined I found that I had sustained internal injuries which laid me up for more than two months. After that I noticed that I had pains in the back and groin which I never had before. I doctored and doctored for several months but as the pains increased instead of growing better I decided that I was not having the right treatment. Reading in the papers of the wonderful cures performed by Wine of Cardui I wrote to one of the parties and received a very satisfactory reply and I immediately sent for some. In a very short time I felt generally better and after seven weeks faithful use I was not having the surface of this pain.
